Herobotics smiles shine bright posing with Minneapolis Mayor Frye and CM Cunningham at this year's City's Community Connections Conference! SCNA is proud to work with and support this diverse group of young people from Patrick Henry High create an entirely new middle school robotics team system at 5 middle schools in Minneapolis!

Creating a Community Center in Shingle Creek? What will it take?

Please join us on Thursday 8th at 6:00-7:30pm at our SCNA Create a Community Center at Creekview Park !

SCNA heard from Shingle Creek residents that creating a community center is one of their top priorities and earmarked a significant amount of funds toward this effort. The MPRB unveiled two possible layouts for Creekview Park and the other northside parks. We'll be talking about the potential benefits and challenges of those proposals on Wednesday March 8.

SCNA has Lawnsigns to Promote the Neighborhood

Recently SCNA was approached by residents who wanted to see about having some lawn signs made that would help send a welcoming message.

You may order your own lawn sign for your yard.

Supplies are limited.

A $5 donation or more is welcome.
